The Viking Age in Northern Europe and along the Eastern Routes
(ARA 101), 7,5 ECTS
Spring semester (VT) 2017
Course director: Dr Alison Klevnäs (alison.klevnas@ark.su.se)

Course literature
(Buy at Historiska Museet/The Swedish History Museum, 150 SEK)

(Buy in our department, 150 SEK).

You need to read all the compulsory literature for this course. Andersson 2016 is for sale in the shop at Historiska Museet. Androshchuk 2013 can be bought from the student office on our department – cash only, no cards. Other books may be bought in the Akademibokhandeln bookshop on the Stockholm University campus, or ordered from your preferred online bookshop. A few copies of the mandatory books are kept in SUB (Stockholm University library). Most books are kept in the reference library in the Department.
Further recommended reading

Books

All useful for looking up concepts or deep-diving into specific topics; plenty of illustrations:

- Williams, Gareth. 2014. The Viking Ship.

Primary sources

Key texts which will be discussed in lectures:

  (in particular The Vinland Sagas and Saga of the People of Laxardal)
- Ibn Fadlan’s account of a Viking funeral is on pages 5-22 of:
  (Alternatively it is available with a useful introduction as a Penguin Classics book.)

Journal articles

A few particularly interesting and readable papers for students who want to explore relevant recent research. All are online via SUB or as open access: